

User Group - May 2017

10:30 am Friday 5th May 2017

Conference Rooms | The Axis | 10 Holliday Street | Birmingham | B1 1TF

User Group Agenda

10:30 - Registration and refreshments

11:00 - Welcome and introduction

11:15 - BridgeStation bug reporting

11:45 - Inspection Scheduling Update

Jonathan Wheatley

12:15 - Life Cycle Planning for Individual Structures

Bhavin Shah

12:45 - BridgeStation road map and upcoming modules

13:00 - Questions and Answers Session

13:30 - Lunch

Directions

Address

The Axis, 10 Holliday St, Birmingham, West Midlands, B1 1TF

FROM STATIONS

The nearest railway station is Birmingham New Street (5 mins walk to / from The Axis). Leave via the Navigation Street (Platform 6) exit at the far end of the platform as opposed to the main concourse. At the exit of the station turn left and continue down Navigation Street. Look directly ahead and you will see the Axis building to the right of the Mailbox. Continue towards this building and go under the bridge. Take a right up the ramp. The main entrance to the Axis is on the left.

BY CAR

From the M6

1. Leave the M6, and join the A38(M) at the M6/J6 junction direction [A38(M)] BIRMINGHAM (CEN)
2. Leave the A38(M) and straight ahead into A38 (Corporation Street)
3. Continue straight into A4040 Suffolk Street, Queensway, go under the first underpass then,
4. Bear left onto Great Charles Street Queensway
5. Continue straight on one way system and take second exit onto A456 (Broad Street)
6. Turn first left into Bridge Street
7. Turn left into Holliday Street
8. Turn right to the large white and blue building called The Axis

PARKING

There are eight visitor spaces at the front of site. These are on a first come first served basis and cannot be booked in advance. There are also two public car parks situated on either side of the building, Mailbox and NCP beside the Crown Plaza.